

Change in Sales+Marketing and Administration business area at WYLER AG

Dear clients, distribution partners, and to whom it may concern

We would like to inform you of personnel changes within the management at WYLER AG. Martin Jaray, Head of Sales+Marketing and Administration, will be retiring at the end of June 2020. As of May 1, 2020, his successor will be Urs Kammacher.

After almost 17 years of valuable service to WYLER AG, Martin Jaray has decided to leave us in June 2020 in order to enjoy a well-deserved retirement. Through his experience, expertise, and exceptional commitment, he contributed significantly to the successful development of WYLER AG.

He will be handing his successor a capable and well-structured business area. WYLER AG would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to Martin Jaray for his long-time commitment.

Urs Kammacher is a very experienced and entrepreneurial leader, who will be assuming the role Head of Sales+Marketing and Administration as of May 1, 2020. He is 51, a Graduate Electrical Engineer (University of Applied Sciences), and has completed a variety of further training programs in sales innovation and marketing at the University of St. Gallen. He has a Master's of Business Administration, and has successfully held leadership roles at large companies. He will continue to further develop and implement our strategy by relying on the three pillars of quality, innovation, and service.

Urs Kammacher lives in Uetikon am See. He is married, and has a daughter. He speaks German, English, and French.

Heinz Hinnen
President of the Board of Directors WYLER AG
